

SEACHTAIN TAIGHDE - COLLEGE RESEARCH WEEK 2022

Fáilte chuig An tSeachtain Taighde 2022! Welcome to MIC Research Week 2022!

Reáchtáilfear Seachtain Taighde 2022 ón 11 go 18 Feabhra 2022 i gColáiste Mhuire gan Smál, pléifear roinnt téamaí comhtháite taighde i rith an ama agus tabharfar ardán do thaighdeoirí, idir bhaill foirne an choláiste agus mhic léinn iarchéime, a saothair a chur os comhair an phobail.

Research Week 2022 will take place February 11th - 18th 2022 at MIC. It will consist of several integrated research-related themes. These include significant external developments taking place across the broad spectrum of the academic research environment, as well as presentations showcasing current research by MIC staff and postgraduate research students, new projects, recent accomplishments and research ideas.

MIC will welcome keynote speakers and other contributors in areas including research integrity, research assessment developments in Europe, Open Research and changing norms in research publication, the Irish ORCID Consortium and unique persistent digital identifiers, and current best practice in doctoral supervision. A plenary roundtable event 'Diversity and Research' will focus on research activity in the context of EDII themes.

Recognising the importance of research in the careers of those setting out on academic pathways, whether in postgraduate research or at staff early researcher level, Research Week 2022 will incorporate a substantial component of research skills training across several 'Research Skills for Early Career Researchers' sessions, along with a seminar offering editorial insights for those planning to publish in international peer reviewed journals and a special workshop on how to write competitive funding applications.

Cuirfear fáilte le fiche romhaibh a bheith linn le linn na Seachtaine!
